

SCHOOL YEAR 2018-2019

KINDERGARTEN (FULL DAY) is a valuable program in the overall training of the child for daily living. It is also a period of preparation and readiness for school participation. The activity experiences are designed to help the child adjust socially, coordinate physically, grow spiritually, and prepare mentally for the first grade. The A Beka curriculum is used. Our program is taught by certified teachers. Classroom period is 8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., with the beginning bell at 8:10 a.m.

ELEMENTARY – HIGH SCHOOL (1-12) meets or exceeds the basic curriculum outlined by the Florida Department of Education, teaching the subjects necessary for the child’s training, integrating the Bible throughout. The aim of the curriculum is to develop the basic skills and lay a foundation for a Christian world and life view. All classes and subjects are taught by certified teachers. Classroom period is 8:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for grades 1-5, 8:00 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. for the secondary grades, with the beginning bell five minutes before the starting time.
